

BORTHWICK
CASTLE

Make your wedding exquisitely, unforgettably Borthwick.

YOURS, EXCLUSIVELY

600 years of timeless history await, a magnificent backdrop to an unforgettable wedding celebration.

Yours exclusively, the three majestic reception rooms and twelve elegant bedchambers, each ensuring exquisite attention to detail and every element of comfort.

The grounds within the castle walls set the perfect scene for pre-wedding barbecues, fun-filled activities, drinks enjoyed on the lawn as well as exceptional views and country walks.

Welcoming you, your family and friends, the castle can accommodate up to 85 guests, and our bedchambers within the castle grounds welcome 28 guests.

The image shows a luxurious, historic interior, likely a castle or manor. The room is characterized by its high ceilings with dark wooden beams and a large, ornate chandelier hanging from the center. The walls are made of light-colored stone or plaster, with arched doorways and windows. A large, comfortable-looking sofa with patterned cushions and a red throw is the centerpiece. To the left, a fireplace is visible, and a large, ornate lamp stands nearby. The overall atmosphere is warm and inviting, with soft lighting from the chandelier and other lamps.

LEADING TO YOUR WEDDING

Arrive with family and friends for a relaxing start to your celebrations.

Indulge in traditional afternoon tea, games or activities on the lawn, an intimate pre-wedding supper, before retiring to the stateroom to enjoy a wee dram by the roaring fire. Let our castle become your home.

EXQUISITE CHOICES FOR YOUR WEDDING CEREMONY

THE GARRISON

This beautiful space (two levels above the Great Hall) with magnificent views over Scotland's borders is a wonder to behold. Under its stone-vaulted ceiling we can host your perfect ceremony. The beautiful acoustics means music is more beautiful and the atmosphere so very intimate. Up to 85 guests will feel comfortable here.

THE GREAT HALL

For small and intimate wedding ceremonies, you may finally decide that the welcoming fire and majestic space of the Great Hall (ground floor) is ideal for you. We recommend you consider it if you have 50 guests or fewer.

THE CASTLE GROUNDS

Set against the backdrop of these historic castle walls, the castle lawn can be a perfect and natural stage for your wedding ceremony, full of light and beautiful framing for photography.

CHURCH CEREMONY

If it is your desire, a number of churches are located short drive from the Castle. We can liaise with the church of your choosing and manage all requirements.

THE DRINKS RECEPTION

WELCOME YOUR GUESTS IN THE STATE ROOM

The castle's Stateroom (one level above the Great Hall) offers the most elegant of surroundings with sumptuous furnishings. Guests love to explore its little nooks, crannies and elegant clusters that encourage socialising and relaxing.

THE CASTLE LAWN

With breath-taking views of the Scottish borders, a drinks reception outside is a deeply memorable experience. At certain times of day (especially the golden hour of evening light), it is transformed into a wonderland all of its own.

The image shows a large, historic hall with a vaulted stone ceiling. A large, ornate chandelier hangs from the center. Long tables are set with white linens, glassware, and floral centerpieces. The walls are made of stone and feature large mirrors and framed artwork. A balcony with a railing is visible in the background.

THE WEDDING RECEPTION

THE GREAT HALL

Some of the finest wedding banquets are staged within this Great Hall, under the guidance of our head chef Derek Johnstone and team . Expert in creating exquisite dining experiences, accommodating all tastes and desires the castle maintains an extensive stocked bar within the Great Hall and Stateroom and an access to the enviable wine cellar

A high-angle, wide shot of a large group of people, approximately 50-60, gathered in a grand, historic hall. They are all dressed in formal evening wear, including gowns, tuxedos, and waistcoats. Many of the guests have their arms raised in the air, some with open palms, suggesting a moment of celebration or a toast. The hall is dimly lit, with warm light emanating from numerous lit candles on candelabras and tables. In the background, a large, decorated Christmas tree stands as a centerpiece. The architecture of the hall is visible, featuring high ceilings, stone walls, and large windows. The overall atmosphere is festive and elegant.

CELEBRATIONS AND DANCING INTO THE NIGHT

IN THE GREAT HALL

Continue the celebrations into the small hours with a traditional Scottish Ceilidh or exclusive party or simply enjoy a dram together in absolute luxury. We transform our Great Hall space from a banqueting room to a hall of celebration, exactly as they did 600 years ago. It becomes an historic backdrop for your celebration and revelry to unfurl.

BEDCHAMBERS

Throughout the length and breadth of the castle, accessed by secret doorways and stone spiral staircases, lie 12 exquisitely designed, and uniquely imagined bedchambers which evoke the full medieval grandeur of our beautiful castle.

FURTHER ACCOMMODATION

Beyond the 28 guests the castle can accommodate, we are experts in managing alternative appropriate accommodation for your other guests in specially curated properties which we believe will meet your needs.
